
Title: Gwenno

Author: Aalia

A woman of very diverse talent—an entertainer, scholar and an explorer—who appears frequently with her husband Iolo. Found as a jester (with Iolo) in Lord British Castle since Ultima III, she is found again as a jester in Ultima IV, in Britannia, although she was not recognized as Iolo wife or either as a companion. She decides to travel with the Avatar in Ultima V, so she can take care of her husband, and leave the store they have in Britain to an employee. She joins the Avatar another time in Ultima VI and plays a very major role as a side character in Ultima VII Part Two as an explorer lost into the Serpent Isle, the reason of Avatar's travels besides seeking Batlin himself. Gwenno has returned to Britannia in Ultima IX; she lives near Britain with Iolo.

Gwenno is based on Kathleen Jones, David R. Watson's wife.
